SLOAN'S PUNISHMENT.

The Forsyth officials yesterday fined Cass Sloan $200 and suspended him for two weeks for his assault on W. B. Cross of DAILY RACING FORM. Sloan is also required to apologise to DAILY RACING FORM and the track officials for rowdism. There could be no other outcome to such a circumstance. The answer to criticism doesn't hover about bludgeons and Sloan got no less than he deserved.

The threatening weather did not keep the crowd away from Forsyth yesterday and the attendance was large. The track was very heavy and it was a bad day for favorites, Freddie L T, who has a liking for the mud, being the only selected one to catch the judge's eye first. Magnusson was the successful jockey, riding three winners and one second.

In the opening event at five furlongs for maidens, great things were expected from Dantes, a full brother to the Butterflies. The going, however, did not suit him, and J. H. Grafton won handily.

In the two-year-old race Easter Eve killed herself by racing with Chenille, allowing the uncertain Vanessa to win, with Tom Anderson a good second.

Freddie L. T. with his known predilection for mud, was made favorite in the first half of the mile selling. He won handily from Otho, who might have been nearer if he had not been cut off.

There was hardly anything played in the three quarters of a mile but Mobalaska and Rubberneck. Ferryman II piloted by little Hothersall beat them both easily.

Mamie G was favorite in the second half of the mile race. Third was the best she could do, even with "the midget" up, Doctor G who came fast in the stretch winning easily from Kirk.

Ashland appears to revel in mud, and he landed the last race, at six and a half furlongs, handily from Hazelhatch. Revenue who was third, would have been closer, if he could have got through. Cunarder who ran in the Louisville Stable's colors, was last, though Simons declared that the horse would win, unless he was a cur, as he had done wonders in his work.

Robbie Hothersall did his riding yesterday with a bandaged face. He was exercising Redskin yesterday, when the old horse threw him, and stepped on his chin. The injury was slight.

LEATHER FORM'S DELAY.

Subscribers to Leather Form will get their books this week. The delay is caused by the work of perfecting its index, which will outclass anything in the index line ever published. To make amends for late delivery thirty blank pages will be bound in each book between the last form chart and index. This will strike all keepers of form as the proper thing. The book can be ordered through J. R. Hawley, of Cincinnati, T. B. Mulliken, Oakley Race Track, Jett Co., St. Louis, and W. W. Lyles, Windsor, Ont. and Detroit, Mich.

HANDSPRING AND HASTINGS.

Phil Dwyer tells the good Eastern folks that his orders to Simms beat Handspring for the Belmont stakes. He says:

"I blame nobody for the loss of the race other than myself. Instructions beat Handspring, and that's all there is to it. I supposed naturally that there would be some pace from the start, and told Simms to drop in behind in second or third place, and wait until the stretch was reached, then to come on the outside, where Hastings would have no chance to lean on him.

If Simms had not been hampered by orders he could have gone on from the start and won the race then and there. At any rate I'm satisfied with my colt.

Mr. Belmont was naturally overjoyed at winning the stake, connected as it is with the memory of his father. It proved to him, too, that he did not make any mistake in buying Hastings.

Handspring and Hastings do not meet in any of the big stake events for three-year-olds at Gravesend, but they are in the Hempstead Handicap of $2,000, at six furlongs, to be run Thursday, June 18. Hastings' next big race will be for the Realization at sheephead Bay, where he must meet Requitall. Handspring is not eligible. However, some way may be discovered whereby these three-year-olds may be brought together.

COUGLE BUYS CAESARIAN.

Charles A. Cogle yesterday bought Caesarian, through Walter Gum for a reasonable price.

The sale was made before Caesarian beat Urania yesterday. The colt, a bay, 4 years old, by Faustus-Cleopatra, is one of the shiftiest of sprinters and able to go a distance, too, as his defeat of Lady Inez for the Losantville Stakes, 8½ furlongs in 1:52, on a heavy track, proves.

Perhaps Caesarian's best race was his Louisville defeat of Rondo, 108 to 107, three-quarters of a mile in 1:14. So far Caesarian has run seven races and won them all this season.

Good Prices at Tattersalls.

There was good attendance and really handsome bidding came out of the sale of yearlings at Tattersalls last night. The best prices were:

B. c. by Jim Gore—Mischief by Thunderstorm; T. W. Coulter, $375.

Br. f. by Fordham—Bag Pipe by Macduff; Ruddy Bros., $775.

Blk. c. by Sir Dixon—Vie by Virgil; B. Schreiber, $525.

B. c. by King Galop—Gadding, by Rotherhill; L. Ezell, $500.

A SPECIAL FORM SERVICE.

From and after June 1. Daily Racing Form Publishing Company will be ready to fill orders for a local form service of marvelous range. Its messengers will deliver to subscribers each evening a leather-bound volume of the charts of all races run the same afternoon, with indexed entries for the following day on each track—local and foreign. The charge for such service will be reasonable and quoted upon application.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Before leaving 'Frisco Mr. Corrigan sold his good filly Olive to Adolph Spreckels.

At the recent Morris Sale east the stallions Winfred (13), Plevna (20), and Lovegold (10) each sold for $25. P. McDonald got all three.

George Covington bought The Swain at Morris Park Tuesday and won him out at Brooklyn Thursday and John McCafferty paid $2,000 for Azure and got back more than his purchase price the same day.

What Racing People Need.

The Flanders card, published nightly is correct, and goes to the public convenience of printing a set of entries which is wired for the benefit of its patrons.

Clohesey & Co., of 43 and 50 Wabash avenue, can supply bookmakers with all their needs, and is a reliable and high class firm.

The Virtue of Kidnadin.

"Kidnadin" is a remedy for the cure of diseases of the kidneys in man or beast. It is sold under a guarantee to cure, or money refunded. When ordering, it will be necessary to state whether it is wanted for man or beast, as a different strength is prepared for each. "Kidnadin" has the endorsement of some well known people whose names may be found in the advertisement of that remedy in this paper.

Winner—Ch. h, 6, by Spendthrift—Carrie Phillips.
Start straggling with flag. Won handily; second and third driving. Helen Mar showed speed for half the journey. Old Centre was winning at last furlong pole, where Stowaway, who was in hand all the route, came strong and finished with something to spare. Clissie B was a good deal messed about. Hulbert could not untrack himself.
Scratched—George W. Bailey, 104; Belle of Fordham, 92.
